Ninth District—Henry L. Stone, of Bath.

The time has now come when the spirit of justice which animates the Southern people will require the exclusion from the Southern States of the heres of race, black and white, who have substituted ruthless oppression and pillage for free Government. —Journalists late editor New York Times.

Os dit, a leap-year party. Unless cards are sent out soon we will be excluded.

The Calhoun Fair began yesterday, we saw a good deal of stock pass through here on the way there and no doubt they are having a successful time of it.

SAM GAINES, of the New Era, has completed his history on base ball, and concluded his lectures on kissing and has begun the task of remodeling the belt fashion for ladies; after which, we presume he will lecture on "Midnight rambles over the hills of Sebec."

Does Watterson lead the forlorn hope? —Indianapolis Journal.

No. Watterson generally leads the race, but sometimes plays the deuce. —Indianapolis Herald.

Bro. George, bet your bottom dollar that when Watterson plays the deuce he captures all High—Low—Hayes—Wheeler—Jack and the game.

Judge J. E. Heffer has purchased the "McLean County Progress" and judging from the appearance of his first issue we think the people of that section have lost nothing by the change although Mr. Walter was an energetic writer and conducted the paper well. We wish Judge Heffer abundant success.

W. T. KING of this city has been appointed Dept. U. S. Marshall for the 2nd and 3rd Congressional Districts of this State. Mr. King has resigned the position of Distillery Surveyor and Deputy Collector to take effect on the 30th. He will enter on duty as Marshall November 1st.

The interest law fixing eight per cent. as the legal rate went into effect September 1st. On and after that date any amount of interest in excess of 8 per cent cannot be contracted for or collected legally, under penalty of forfeiting the whole amount of the interest.

The New York Times on September 21st retracts the charge of perjury made against Governor TILDEN on September 8th, in the matter of the Toledo and Wabash railroad. It says: "We must accept the denial as conclusive. Proof is promised us but in its absence, that charge must be withdrawn."

We learn that Hon. W. T. ELLIS, District Elector, has invited Hon. G. C. WEDDING, Assistant Elector for the State at large, (Rep.) to meet him at his appointments. Hon. James Z. MOORE having been nominated for Congress, thus throwing Mr. W. to the front.

Upon an interview we learn that Mr. W. will accept if he can arrange home affairs. "Go in Lemmons."

"Birds of a feather flock together." FREDERICK HASSAUREK supports SAMUEL J. TILDEN; A. G. HESSING supports R. B. HAYES.

General WILLIAM SCOTT HANCOCK supports SAMUEL J. TILDEN; General WILLIAM W. BELKNAP supports R. B. HAYES.

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS supports SAMUEL J. TILDEN; BENJAMIN F. BUTLER, "widow," supports R. B. HAYES. —[N. Y. World.]

The Recent Elections.

The States that have voted this year so far, show unmistakable signs of success for the Democrats.

Alabama gave a democratic majority of 40,000.

Arkansas about the same.

Connecticut had no State officers to elect but an election was held for local officers and the Democrats carried it by an increase over their majority of last year.

Delaware held a local election on Tuesday 3rd inst., and the Democrats carried three counties by a majority of 2,141. The city of Wilmington heretofore Republican went Democratic by a decided majority.

Georgia gave the insignificant Democratic majority of 80,000.

Indiana about 5,000 on Governor, and over 7,000 on the other State officers and Congressmen.

Kentucky about 35,000 majority. West Virginia 12,000.

These States cast 56 electoral votes. The Republicans carried Colorado it is supposed by a very small majority.

Maine by about 15,000.

Oahu by about 6,000.

These States have an electoral vote of 37.

The total Republican majority in these States is about 45,000, while the Democratic majorities in the States carried by them aggregate, 215,000.

Thus far, the Centennial elections have pronounced 215,000 for the Democrats to 45,000 for the Republicans being a net Democratic majority of 170,000, and an electoral vote of 56 for the Democrats to 37 for the Republicans, being a majority of 19.

This is the way things are drifting and the way they will drift in November.

Woodward is in the Toms, Tweed is sailing hitherward, Connolly and Sweeney hide in Europe; yet Shepherd flaunts his ill-gotten wealth at Washington, Babcock wriggles out of the clutches of the law by the aid of the power of the Governor, Belknap is untouched, Secor Robeson retains his plunder, and the whiskey thieves come out of jail on Grant's pardons. But it may yet happen that we shall see the thieves of Grantism also in exile or in prison. If the people put Tilden in the White House, we may expect that justice will be done those fellows who have so long enjoyed immunity for their crimes that they have grown impudent in their assurance, and careless of the popular indignation, feeling safe in the future, as in the past, from the punishment of the law. But Tuesday's elections have given them warning.

The Louisville Conference, M. E. Church, South, held its Annual Session in Louisville last week.

The following are the appointments for the Owensboro District—S. C. Allen, Presiding Elder.

Owensboro Circuit—E. B. Fallon.

Yelvington—M. M. Hunter.

Calhoun—W. L. Corbin.

Livermore—B. D. Griffin.

Hartford—W. W. Cook, and R. D. Bennett supernumerary.

Whitesville—J. A. Miller.

Hawesville—J. C. Norman, Sr.

Lewisport—J. W. Taylor.

Crownwell—S. Newton.

Cloverport—V. Elgin.

The Republicans will fight desperately until November. With them it is a struggle for existence—victory or annihilation. The concern is on its last legs. We feel it in our bones. Its mission was to engender hate between the sections and plunder the people, and they have out-lived it. In the language of the little boy to the last yellow-legged chicken on the fence-pannel, "It's no use dodgin'—the preacher's come and yer bound to die."

The Teachings of Radicalism.

At the speaking at Rockport, Indiana, on Saturday, 7th inst., Fred Douglass was announced to speak, which he did after his most eloquent style, and when he had finished, a white man's child, in the person of a beautiful young lady (?) climbed up and gave him a smack on those eloquent lips of his that resounded all over the Rockport hills. We don't blame Fred the least bit, if he is satisfied, though we think the young woman might have consulted his feelings somewhat.

And these are the questions Fred asks day and night, "Must my soul taste but once such exquisite delight?"

Will my saddle-colored arms e'er enfold you as then?

"And when I come to Rockport, will you kiss me again?" —[Owensboro Monitor.]

W. A. WHEELER AS TRUSTEE.

A Suit brought by a Railroad Co. To Recover $60,000.

The New York Sun, a Liberal Republican paper, of the 17th, ult says

Some time prior to 1860, William A. Wheeler, John S. Eldridge, of Boston, and George W. Brown, of Ogdensburg, were appointed trustees of the Ogdensburg, St. Lawrence and Lake Champlain Railroad. The annual salary of each trustee was fixed at $5,000. In 1865 the stockholders of the company, realizing that the trustees were grossly mismanaging the road, instituted proceedings in the Supreme Court for their removal. In 1866 an order was granted by the Court, empowering the stockholders to reorganize the company. Mr. Wheeler, knowing that the re-organization would remove him, and learning that under the code of practice in this State no appeal could be taken from the order of the Court, secured the passage through the Legislature of an amendment to the code of procedure rendered such codes appealable. Armed with a copy of the law, he threatened to appeal from the order unless the stockholders would compromise with him by paying him and his co-trustees $20,000 each, their salary for four years. The stockholders, desirous of getting rid of the trustees, and unwilling to submit to the delay consequent on an appeal from the order, consented to Mr. Wheeler's terms, and paid him and his associates $60,000. After the company had been re-organized, a suit was brought against Messrs. Wheeler, Eldridge and Brown, to recover the $60,000. One of the company's counsel was Edwards Pierpont. The Justice before whom the case was brought was a relative of one of the trustees, and it was therefore removed to the United States Supreme Court, where it is still pending. Since the suit was begun Mr. Eldridge and Mr. Brown have died.

A Colored Clergyman Persecuted on Account of His Political Opinions.

The official board of Orchard-street M. E. church (colored) held a meeting yesterday to consider what action should be taken in the case of their pastor, Rev. R. H. Robinson, who was known to be a Democrat. The board did not arrive at any conclusion, but again agreed to meet to night, when the pastor will be invited to be present. In a conversation with Mr. Robinson a Gazette reporter learned that he is originally from Mount Vernon, Va. He says that he is a Democrat because he thinks the Republican party has deceived the colored man. He has two sons who have the same opinion as himself. Ever since his political sentiments have become known he has been subject to petty persecutions from the negroes in the neighborhood of Orchard street, both members of his congregation and others. Yesterday Joshua Simms and George Bowser, both colored were arrested by Officers Flannery and Donnelly, charged with attempting to incite by a riot by intimidating R. B. Robinson, a son of the above-named, on the street. Justice Thomas committed them for the action of the grand jury. Constant threats are being made and unless he declares himself in favor of the Republican nomination his house will be mobbed, and his wife lives in a continual terror. The members of the official board of his church met him on the street yesterday, after they had held their meeting and told him that all would be right if he would promise to keep his political opinions to himself, and requested him to meet with them to-night. He refused to do so, and says he in no way holds himself amenable to them, but only to the conference of his church. He has not thus far expressed his political opinions in or out of his church in a public meeting. What he may do in future he cannot say. He and both of his sons are members of a Democratic club.

A newspaper is a window through which men look out on all that is going on in the world. Without a newspaper a man is shut up in a small room, and knows little or nothing of what is happening outside of himself. In our day the newspapers keep pace with history and record it. A newspaper will keep a sensible man in sympathy with the world's current history. It is an encyclopaedia and an unbound book, forever insuring and never finished. Always bear this in mind, and never fail to take, and more particularly, pay for your home paper.

Old aunt Hannah an old negress of Daviess county who knew George Washington well, died last week at the early age of 118. Wonder if all the people who knew George Washington well, will ever die.

INDIANA ELECTION.

Up to the time of going to press, we were unable to get any further from the seat of war.

Williams fell behind the balance of the State ticket, claiming so far only a majority of 5,500, while the State at large claims from 6 to 8,000.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The returns have come in full, but are not official. The Democrats have the State by at least twelve thousand.

Two-thirds majority in the House and two United States Senators to elect this winter.

OHIO ELECTION.

Nothing yet definite as to the majorities, but it will be safe to say the State has gone Republican by a majority about the same as was given Mr. Hayes for Governor, in 1875, which is one hundred per cent. smaller majority than the State has given the Republicans at their October or November elections of a Presidential year in the last sixteen years and really amounts to a Republican defeat.

The citizens of Sulphur Springs precinct raised a beautiful Tilden and Hendricks flag last Saturday. Want of space forbids us from giving further notice.

Expiration of the Term of United States Senator.

The term of twenty-six United States Senators will end on the fourth of next March, seventeen Republican and nine Democratic, as follows: Republicans—Clayton, Arkansas; Logan, Illinois; Wright, Iowa; Harvey, Kansas; West, Louisiana; Morrill, Maine; Boutwell, Massachusetts; Ferry, Michigan; Windom, Minnesota; Alcorn, Mississippi; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Cragin, New Hampshire; Frelinghuysen, New Jersey; Anthony, Rhode Island; Robertson, South Carolina; Hamilton, Texas; and Howe, Wisconsin. Democrats—Goldwater, Alabama; Saulsbury, Delaware; Norwood, Georgia; Stevenson, Kentucky; Ransom, North Carolina; Kelly, Oregon; Cooper, Tennessee; Davis, West Virginia, and Johnston, Virginia. Of the Republicans, two have already their places filled by Democrats; Lamar has been elected from Mississippi, and Coke from Texas, Anthony, of Rhode Island, has been re-elected. The vacancies from Kentucky and Virginia have already been filled by the election of Democrats.
